Newport, RI - Secret is out! Style Newport has quietly announced that their nautical inspired jewelry operation is expanding; moving into one of Newport's most prime store fronts on Thames Street.

Owner Karen King leaked the news on their Facebook page Thursday. Her post reads: "BIG NEWS!!! We are moving to 302 Thames Street. Great location and space. I'll be on Christie's Landing for three weeks and will open the new store the day after Thanksgiving. Wish me luck!"

Style Newport Owner Karen King reveals her inspiration for the jewelry collection on her website: "I started my jewelry design business in the spring of 2010. The inspiration was a ring my husband gave me that spelled out "I Love You" in nautical flags," says King. "That was ten years ago and although it has taken me some time to realize this dream I hope you will find my original designs based on nautical signal flags beautiful. Wear your initials, someone else's initials or create a piece that is uniquely your own."

Style Newport jewelry is handcrafted in Rhode Island. From the design of each model through all phases of production is committed to using only U.S. based suppliers and Rhode Island craftsmen.
